Next Paul and Silas traveled through the area of Phrygia and Galatia, because the Holy Spirit had told them not to go into the province of Asia at that time.

Then coming to the borders of Mysia, they headed for the province of Bithynia, but again the Spirit of Jesus did not let them go.

So instead, they went on through Mysia to the city of Troas.

That night Paul had a vision. He saw a man from Macedonia in northern Greece, pleading with him, "Come over here and help us."

So we decided to leave for Macedonia at once, for we could only conclude that God was calling us to preach the Good News there.

(Acts 16:6-10)

God has the power to open any closed door — no circumstance is too difficult for Him to overcome. Yet He may choose to let things that seem important to us remain blocked. Why does the Lord allow doors to shut?

Protection. Perhaps He is trying to keep us from making a mistake. On our own, we may not have sufficient knowledge to make right choices.

Redirection. God could be sending us down a new path. His plan might include bigger opportunities for us, a wider area of service, more fruitfulness, deeper satisfaction, a season of suffering, or an opportunity to glorify His name. God closed doors in Asia so that the apostle Paul would minister on the continent of Europe. His obedience led to greater fruitfulness — the churches at Philippi, Thessalonica, and Corinth — and more knowledge for us through his letters to them. Though Paul experienced much suffering, he also knew the joy of participating in God's work.

Testing. When God says

“No,” our faith is tested, and we discover what we really believe about Him and His plans.

Perseverance. In these roadblocks, we have an opportunity to develop steadfastness, an vital quality for believers. (Romans 5:3-5)

Timing. Our Father places

stop signs along our path in order to work out the correct timing for His will.

Disobedience. Past waywardness can affect future experiences and blessings.

When our way is stopped, we must look to God and seek His purpose for the interruption.
