Recognizing the Voice of God

The Lord wants His will to be the single factor in our decision-making — not what we want or what others think; not the size of the need, our availability, the worthiness of the request, or our previous experience. “What God desires” is to be the litmus test that decides what we do and say.

To recognize God's voice, we first set our minds on His interests rather than our own. Then we ask, Is what I'm considering in agreement with Scripture? Jesus' prediction of His death was scriptural, but Peter wanted a reigning Messiah (Isaiah 9:6-7); He had overlooked the prophetic teaching about the suffering servant (Isaiah 53:3-9). By becoming students of the Word, we will avoid the danger of missing key verses.

When an idea is supported by Scripture, then we inquire, Does it conflict with human reasoning? Ironically, a “yes” means there is a strong possibility that it is God's voice. Peter had trouble reconciling the words crucified and Messiah, yet it was the Lord speaking.

Next, we examine the concept to see if it involves sacrifice or challenges our faith. God's commands usually do. To accept Jesus' words, Peter would have to surrender an earthly relationship with Jesus and believe in His resurrection.

Finally, when God gives us instruction, courage is often required. Peter could see difficulties ahead if Jesus was to be killed.

Learning to identify God's voice is a process. Agreement with His Word is key, so always check the message against the Bible first. Then use the other steps to assess if what you are hearing is from God.

“FOUNDATIONS”

Wednesday Night Bible Study

The Wednesday Night Bible Study, called “Foundations,” meets at the Weiss’ home in Deltona. The Study starts at 7:00 p.m.

We encourage everyone to attend this life changing study, which will help them grow in their faith. Discover the key that can: strengthen beliefs to change behavior; lessen your day-to-day stress level; increase your security in an insecure world; help you raise your kids with a right perspective on life; and increase your love for and trust in God.

A Brief Overview of “Foundations”

Many Christians today live their lives, plan their schedules, and use their resources completely disconnected from what they say they believe. This spiritual disconnect is the cause of so much of the stress and problems in our lives. Foundations is a fresh, innovative curriculum about the essential truths of the Christian faith and how these truths are to be lived out – in your relationships, your character, and your work. Rather than just teaching doctrinal knowledge, this course shows you how to apply biblical truths and implement them in your everyday life.
